A PRINTER GREATLY SURPRISED.

"I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so I bought a bottle of it and before using two-thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF "STANDARD COPPER MINING & MILLING COMPANY."

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, whose names are hereunto affixed, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the Territory of Arizona, and to that end make the following statement:

FIRST: The names of the incorporators are: Edmond Lord, 2556 North 5th Street, Philadelphia, Penna.; Edward R. Allen, 2348 North 5th Street, Philadelphia, Penna.; Otto W. Manz, 5th and Lehigh Ave., Philadelphia, Penna.; Samuel S. Loughridge, 5th and Indiana Ave., Philadelphia, Penna.; Charles W. Zander, 2562 North 7th Street, Philadelphia, Penna.

Charles F. Stell, Union Bridge, Maryland; Thomas M. Prosser, 1601 West Lehigh Ave., Philadelphia, Penna. And the name of the corporation shall be "Standard Copper Mining & Milling Company." The principal place in which the business of said corporation within the Territory of Arizona is to be transacted is Phoenix, Maricopa County, Arizona, and the principal place of business of said corporation outside the Territory of Arizona shall be at Union Bridge in the State of Maryland, at which meetings of the Board of Directors may be held, and the corporation may have such branch offices either within or without the Territory of Arizona as may be established by the Board of Directors.

SECOND: The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted by this corporation is as follows, to-wit:

To purchase, lease, bond, locate or otherwise acquire, own, exchange, sell, or otherwise dispose of, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate and deal in real estate and any and all kinds of personal property, mines, mining claims, oil lands, mineral lands, oil, gas, asphaltum, petroleum, water and water rights and machinery, and to work, mine, explore, operate and develop the same, to do a general real estate, manufacturing and mercantile business, to own, handle and control letters patent and inventions and shares of capital stock of other corporations; to borrow money and execute notes, bonds, mortgages, or deeds of trust to secure the same, and to exercise in respect of all such bonds, mortgages, notes, shares of capital stock and other securities, all the powers and privileges of individual owners thereof, including the right to vote upon any shares of stock held by it to the same extent that a natural person might or could do; and in general to do all things necessary to the proper conduct of the business of this corporation in the Territory and elsewhere, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States and the Territory of Arizona.

THIRD: The authorized amount of capital stock of this corporation shall be one million dollars ($1,000,000) divided into 1,000,000 shares of the par value of one dollar ($1.00) each. At such time as the Board of Directors may by resolution direct, said capital stock shall be paid into this corporation either in cash or by the sale and transfer of real or personal property for the uses and purposes of said corporation, in payment for which shares of the capital stock of said corporation may be issued, and the capital stock so issued shall thereupon and thereby become and be fully paid up and non-assessable, and in the absence of actual fraud in the transaction the judgment of the Directors as to the value of the property purchased shall be conclusive.

FOURTH: The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation in the office of the Secretary of Arizona, and the termination thereof shall be twenty-five years thereafter.

FIFTH: The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of seven Directors, and the following named shall constitute the Board of Directors until their successors are elected: Edmond Lord, Edward R. Allen, Otto W. Manz, Samuel S. Loughridge, Charles W. Zander, Charles F. Stell, Thomas M. Prosser. Thereafter the Board of Directors shall be elected from among the stockholders as the By-Laws of the corporation may provide.

SIXTH: The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation is at any time subject shall be one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

SEVENTH: The private property of the stockholders and Directors of this corporation shall be exempt from corporate debts of any kind whatsoever.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF "THE PLUTE GOLD MINES COMPANY."

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, the undersigned, Porter E. Cope, George D. Hay and Thomas R. Smith, propose to form a corporation under the Revised Statutes of the Territory of Arizona, and for that purpose do make, sign and acknowledge according to law, and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I. The name of this corporation shall be The Plute Gold Mines Company, and its principal place for transacting business shall be in the City of Phoenix, in the County of Maricopa, Territory of Arizona, with offices at such other places as the Board of Directors may designate.

ARTICLE II. The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted by the said corporation is a general mining, milling, smelting and reduction business: the buying, selling, leasing, bonding and working of mines, ores and bullion, the building of roads and tramways, to acquire by purchase or otherwise in the United States or the Territories thereof, or elsewhere, mining properties, tunnel and mill sites and water rights, and work, mine, tunnel and otherwise develop the same; erect necessary buildings, mills, smelters, reduction plants, machinery and appliances, and purchase and develop the same and for the proper working thereof; to work for gold, silver, copper, lead and other minerals; to sell, mill, smelt, reduce, refine or otherwise prepare the same for market; to work, handle and control inventions and letters patent relating to and incident to the mining, milling and smelting of ores; to buy, sell, own, use and control real estate, water rights, mill sites, machinery, appliances, fixtures, buildings, stocks of other corporations, letters patent and inventions; to borrow money, issue bonds, and to mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of any or all of its corporate property for the security and payment of any of its indebtedness and to do any and all things, and to acquire, use, own, handle and control property, real and personal, which may be requisite and necessary to carry into effect the objects for which the said corporation is formed.

ARTICLE III. The amount of capital stock shall be the sum of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) divided into One Million (1,000,000) shares of the par value of one dollar ($1.00) each, which capital stock shall be paid up upon the call of the Board of Directors of this corporation, and shall be forever non-assessable, and each certificate when issued shall state upon its face the number of shares represented thereby, and that the same is full-paid and forever non-assessable, that one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) of the one million dollars ($1,000,000) authorized capital stock of this company, viz: one hundred thousand (100,000) shares of the par value of one dollar ($1.00) per share, or so much thereof as may be sold from time to time shall be issued as preferred stock, and upon and subject to the following terms and conditions, viz: Said preferred stock shall entitle the holder thereof to receive out of the net earnings, and the company shall be bound to pay a fixed yearly dividend of 8 per centum, but no more, payable semi-annually before any dividend shall be set apart or paid on the common stock, or applied towards the retirement of the preferred stock as hereafter mentioned.

That seventy-five per centum of all the net earnings of the company, after making off the payment of the dividend of eight per centum above mentioned on the preferred stock shall from time to time be applied to the payment of additional dividends on so much of the said preferred stock as may be issued, up to its full par value as hereafter mentioned.

That upon a winding up of the company the said preferred stock shall be first lien to the amount of the principal upon the assets of the company, maintaining after the payment of creditors. That without the consent of two-thirds in amount of the said preferred stock, outstanding, there shall not be created any other stock ranking equal with or in priority to it. Provided, that when dividends aggregating one hundred per centum in addition to the cumulative eight per centum dividend above mentioned have been paid on said preferred stock the same shall cease to have any preference or priority as to dividends, lien or otherwise over the other or common stock, and shall thereupon immediately become and be common stock of the company, and the certificates or receipts issued and outstanding therefor shall be surrendered and cancelled, and certificates of common stock in like amounts be issued in lieu thereof.

ARTICLE IV. The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation shall at any time subject itself shall be Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000).

ARTICLE V. The private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall be exempt from liability for its corporate debts.

ARTICLE VI. The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the day on which these Articles shall be filed in the office of the County Recorder of Maricopa County, Arizona, and the corporation shall continue for the term of twenty-five years thereafter.

ARTICLE VII. The affairs of this corporation, and the management and control of its affairs and business, shall be conducted by a board of seven directors, to be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders, which shall be held at the office of the company, to be designated by the Board of Directors, on the third

Wednesday in April of each year, and until the next annual meeting of the stockholders the affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by the following Board of Directors, viz: Porter E. Cope, Robert H. Sayre, George D. Hay, Joshua Bunting, John C. Fawcett, William E. Low, and Edward Pell Lukens, who shall hold office until their successors are duly elected. Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled by a majority of the other Directors in office.

ARTICLE VIII. The officers of this corporation shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers and agents as the Board of Directors may deem necessary for the proper transaction of its business.

ARTICLE IX. The Board of Directors of this corporation shall have power to make By-Laws and amendments thereto, and the said corporation shall have power to increase or diminish its capital stock or to increase or diminish the number of Directors by a majority vote of the stockholders represented at any regular stockholders' meeting or any special meeting of the stockholders.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands this twentieth day of February, A. D. 1902.
